SEFTON TOPS THE NORTH WEST LEAGUE WITH 12.5 UNEMPLOYED CLAIMANTS CHASING EACH JOB VACANCY

The number one political priority has to be securing a reduction in unemployment by creating jobs, by stimulating demand in the economy, not by cutting wages and shedding jobs says GMB

In second half of 2011 there were 12.5 unemployed workers chasing each live unfilled job vacancy in Sefton a new GMB analysis shows. Sefton was top of the North West league with the highest ratio of claimants to unfilled job vacancies. In Sefton during this period there was a monthly average of 8,758 unemployed claimants chasing a monthly average of 701 live unfilled job vacancies. Next in the league in terms of number of claimants for each unfilled vacancy were Tameside 12.0; Wirral 10.2 and Oldham 10.1. Below are the figures for the 23 areas in the North West for this period.

The figures show that in the North West region there were a total of 195,554 unemployed claimants chasing a total of 35,626 unfilled job vacancies. That means that there were 5.5 unemployed workers chasing each unfilled job vacancy across the region as a whole.

The figures show that in Great Britain there were a total of 1,504,172 unemployed claimants chasing a total of 289,839 unfilled job vacancies. That means that there were 5.2 unemployed workers chasing each unfilled job vacancy across the country as a whole.

The number of unemployed claimants chasing each unfilled vacancy by region in Great Britain is as follows in descending order: Scotland 7.8; North East 7.8; London 7.7; Yorkshire and Humber 6.3, Wales 5.6; North West; 5.5 West Midlands 4.8; East Midlands 4.0 Eastern England 3.9; South East 3.5 and South West region 3.4.

All these figures are from a new GMB analysis of the live unfilled vacancies and total claimants. The figures were for the period between July and December 2011 and show the monthly average for both over 6 months. The full table with all 204 areas in Great Britain is set out as a pdf at the foot of the national release on this subject on the GMB website (www.gmb.org.uk).

Paul McCarthy Regional Secretary for North West Region said “The rise in unemployment since the recovery stalled was made in Downing Street.

The truth is that jobs are haemorrhaging in the public and private sectors and no one in Parliament seems to know what to do to stop this.

There are parts of the region like Liverpool and Knowsley in such despair that more than a quarter of households with people of working age have no one in work. The prospects for these are bleak since the number of unemployed workers chasing each vacancy across the region is even higher than shown. Across the UK there are 1.2 million unemployed who are not claimants.

The number one political priority has to be securing a reduction in unemployment by creating jobs, by stimulating demand in the economy, not by cutting wages and shedding jobs.”
