JCB Bonus Reward For Commitment From GMB Members

GMB, the union for JCB workers, says a £750 Christmas bonus to more than 6,000 UK-based workers is a reward for the commitment members have shown during the pandemic.

Stuart Harrison, GMB Organiser, said:

"The commitment from our members and JCB employees should be applauded during these difficult times.

The workforce has shown support and flexibility which has helped the company become the success it is.

JCB must now continue to invest in its highly skilled workforce and make sure that UK manufacturing is valued.

All of our members at JCB will now enjoy their Christmas break and return on better terms and conditions."
