

Hinkley point tunnelling strike cancelled

Hinkley Point C tunnelling crews have cancelled a planned strike after winning a pay dispute.

Members of GMB and Unite working at TG Tunnelling will now receive a payment to cover tax they were incorrectly charged last year.

GMB members accepted the company's offer with a majority of 93 per cent.

Tim Northover, GMB Organiser, said:

"GMB members have accepted an offer which means they will not be out of pocket."

"As a result, today's strike has been cancelled.

"Hopefully we will now have time to resolve the wider issues around the dispute in good faith.

"We retain the strike mandate and won't hesitate to set further dates for industrial action, if necessary."
