

Council tax shake up 'good news'

GMB Union has welcomed a council tax shake up, announced by the Government today [Wednesday]

Kevin Brandstatter, GMB National Officer, said:

"Multi-year funding settlements have got to be good news, providing councils with much-needed financial stability.

"Meanwhile, spreading council tax payments and easing the repayment system will help hard up families hit by the cost of living crisis.

"The Government should now look at reforming the council tax system itself , which is outdated, out of touch and unfair.
